ABOUT ME

Hey there! I'm Marie, a full-time traveler on a perpetual quest for adventure. Whether it's diving into the depths of the ocean or soaring above breathtaking landscapes, I'm always on the move. As a divemaster with aspirations of becoming an instructor, I'm constantly exploring new horizons. My gear bag is packed with essentials like the DJI Mini 3 Pro, Insta360 X3, GoPro, and Samsung S24 Ultra – perfect for capturing every moment of my journey. With a knack for creating engaging travel content, I frequently collaborate with hotels to showcase unique experiences around the world. Let's team up and inspire wanderlust together!
